Graduation Presents

At no other time in the life of a Boy or young Woman is a substantial gift so appropriate, and no occasion merits a token of approval and encouragement more.
The proud day of gradua-

GREAT WELCOME FOR ROOSEVELT

PLANS FOR HIS RECEPTION AT NEW YORK.

Thousands Will Go Out to Sea to Meet Him on His Return.

NON-PARTISAN IN CHARACTER

New York, June 1. (Special.)— As the time approaches for the return of ex-President Roosevelt on Saturday morning, June 18, the plans for his welcome are assuming larger and larger dimensions, and that the greeting will be nation-wide admits of no doubt. New York will be filled from river to river with citizens and guests, enormous throngs will crowd the line of march during the land parade and other crowds will swarm on the lower bay during the water demonstration. Distinguished visitors from every state in the Union will be in attendance, delegates from organizations from all over the United States will be on hand, and scores of clubs and societies of New York City and vicinity will aid in making the former president's homecoming an historic event.

Chairman R. A. C. Smith, of the harbor display committee, states that nearly every available sea-going craft has been chartered to meet at quarantine the Kaiserin Auguste Victoria on which Colonel Roosevelt will reach America, and that upwards of 100 boats will join in the procession from quarantine to the city.
The boats, comprising steamships, private yachts and tugs, will be gaily decorated and all will have bands on board. The 350 members of the citizens' reception committee appointed by Mayor Gaynor will go down the bay early in the morning on the revenue cutter Androscooggin and meet the Kaiserin at 9 o'clock as she drops anchor. Immediately Colonel Roosevelt will board the Androsco-ggin and the procession will start toward New York.

Passing the battery the boats will proceed up North river, hugging the New Jersey shore, to a stake-boat anchored at 59th street, and then return, reaching the battery at 11 o'clock. Here Colonel Roosevelt will set foot on his native soil for the first time in a year and be officially welcomed by Mayor Gaynor, representing the city of New York.
This ceremony will take place on a raised stand and the principals will be surrounded by 6,000 distinguished guests, including United States senators and representatives, members of the diplomatic corps at Washington, members of President Taft's cabinet, business men of national reputation, artists, literateurs, governors of states, mayors of cities, and many other persons of note.

Will Go Out to Meet Him.

The Republican club of the city of New York has chartered the big steamship Albany and will go to quarantine with fully 5,000 persons aboard. As she is as speedy as the fleet Kaiserin, it is likely that she will proceed to Fire Island and pick up the liner. The Roosevelt neighbors Association of Nassau county, L. I., will take part in the naval demonstration on the steamboat Nassau.
The Nassau will go down the bay with banners flying and bands playing, and it is needless to say, with Colonel Roosevelt's neighbors shouting themselves hoarse. They will wear hats alike, carry the banners they took to Washington at the time of Roosevelt's inauguration, and wave small American flags. The Hamilton club of Chicago, 500 enthusiasts from Philadelphia and delegations from Omaha, Washington, Pittsburgh, Buffalo and other cities have already engaged boats. The harbor will be policed by cutters in the revenue service and speedy police craft.

The land parade will be spectacular in the extreme, although the marching will be confined to the mounted police, the police band, the Roosevelt Rough Riders escorting Mr. Roosevelt, and the reception committee in carriages. The demonstration will be remarkable in that instead of marching, the various organizations will be lined up along Fifth avenue from Eighth street north to Fifty-ninth. Each organization will have a band and may throw an arch across the street. In reality the paraders will review Mr.
Roosevelt instead of Mr. Roosevelt reviewing them. All along the line decorations will be thrown to the breeze until the route will be an enormous ribbon of red, white and blue, extending from Central park to the battery.

Mr. Roosevelt's plans following the reception have not been announced, and it is not known whether he will go to his home at Oyster Bay or remain in the city until the luncheon to be given him Thursday, June 23, by the Roosevelt Rough Riders. Mrs. Roosevelt has been invited by the Daughters of the American Revolution to a luncheon at Sherry's, where, if she accepts, she will review the parade from the windows of the famous restaurant.

The average crowd is said to destroy 700,000 insects

SUPREME COURT RESETS TAX CASES

THE LAW IS UNCONSTITUTIONAL MONEY WILL BE REFUNDED.

Believed Most Corporations Will Pay the Tax Rather Than Run the Risk of Paying Penalty.

THE TAX WILL BE COLLECTED

Washington, June 1.—Just before adjourning until next October, the supreme court of the United States restored the 15 corporation tax cases, heard last spring, to the docket for re-argument before a full bench.

No specific date was set for the re-argument. As two cases touching the constitutionality of the law and its applicability to certain organizations have been set already for the first Tuesday of the October term, after a long list of cases previously assigned for hearing on that date, it is believed the court will advance the 15 cases in question for a hearing in the same month.

The cases were argued on March 17 and 18 before a bench consisting of eight members. When Justice Brewer died shortly afterwards it was thought the cases might be restored to the docket. The Standard Oil and the tobacco dissolution cases were reassigned shortly afterwards, but nothing was said about the corporation tax cases. Inasmuch as the tax must be paid by July 1, it was believed the court would announce a decision this term.

Will Collect Tax.
The only reason advanced for the delay of the court in reassignment of the cases was that the court hoped it would reach a satisfactory decision of the matter before the summer recess and thus avoid a rehearing.

The action today will allow Governor Hughes, of New York, recently appointed to the bench, to participate in the consideration of the law. Justice Moody, who has been absent from the court this year on account of ill health, probably will have returned to his seat on the bench by the time the cases are reargued.

Secretary MacVeagh said that, notwithstanding the failure of the court to pass on the constitutionality of the corporation tax, the treasury would proceed to collect it as required by law. Should the court, after reargument, declare the tax unconstitutional, the money collected would be refunded without the necessity of congressional legislation, the statutes making ample provision for the return of the tax paid wrongfully or in error.

Why Cases Reassigned.
This action was announced by Chief Justice Fuller today, at the conclusion of the announcement of opinions. It will insure the participation of Governor Hughes, recently appointed a justice, in the determination of the cases.

The cases were argued in the court on March 17 and 18. Solicitor General Bowers appeared for the government, while Maxwell Everts, of New York, and former Senator Foraker, of Ohio, were prominent among a long list of attorneys who appeared for corporations.

No reason was given for the re-assignment of the cases, unless the statement "for argument before a full bench" can be so interpreted.
As the constitutionality of the law will not have been passed upon by July 1, it is believed that many complications will arise out of the situation.

Corporations Will Pay.
One of the reasons given by the court for advancing the case for argument last March was that it would avoid serious difficulties if the constitutionality of the law was passed upon before the time expired in which the tax must be paid.
It is generally believed that most corporations will pay the tax rather than run the risk of paying the penalty.

PARTY'S WISHES

McCREARY'S POSITION REGARD-ING GOVERNORSHIP.

Is Not An Announced Candidate for Nomination—Will Support the Nominee.

Lexington, Ky., June 1.—Former Governor and United States Senator James B. McCreary, while in this city made a formal announcement of his position with regard to being a candidate for the Democratic nomination for governor, for which he has been urged by numerous personal friends and Democratic newspapers to make the race.

Mr. McCreary declared that he would not make the canvass for the nomination and that he had not expected to be a candidate for any office again. He stated, however, that the party had so often honored him in the past he did not think he should refuse the use of his name when he is called upon by Democrats. Therefore, if he should be nominated by the Democrats of the state for governor he would accept the honor, he said. Should another standard-bearer be selected for the next state campaign, Mr. McCreary declared he will cheerfully support the nominee, whoever he may be, and make speeches for him and the rest of the ticket.

Mr. McCreary was asked if he would make the race for governor.
He said he did not wish to put it that way, as he would not make a canvass for the nomination, but the Democrats of Kentucky had always honored him when he asked for office, and though he had decided never to be a candidate again, he did not think he should refuse to permit the use of his name when Democrats asked him to do so. "He dictated the following statement, which he said clearly sets forth his attitude in the matter:

"Many Democrats have in person and by letter said to me that I should be the Democratic candidate for governor and if nominated I would have the unanimous support of the Democratic party. Of course, I am very grateful for this evidence of confidence. I did not expect when my term expired in the United States senate to be a candidate for office again, but the solicitation of my friends and the kind editorials in a great many newspapers induced me to say to some of my friends who wrote me urgent letters that I would take the subject of my candidacy for governor under consideration. It is probably about one year before a state Democratic ticket will be nominated. Yet I believe the time has arrived for me to give an answer in some form to my brother Democrats who have honored me.

"I believe the success of the Democratic party in the next state election should be paramount to individual success and I will do all in my power to have a state ticket nominated of Democrats who it is believed will be supported by the whole Democratic party and I will cheerfully support the nominees and make speeches for them. The party to which I have belonged all my life has honored me so often that I believe it is entitled to my services, whenever they are needed or demanded. I believe any Democrat who is nominated fairly by the state Democratic convention should accept, and if I am honored by being nominated as the Democratic candidate for governor I will accept."

Light Employment.

"I understand you are going to marry the banker's daughter."
"She has given her consent."
"Will you work in the bank after you are married?"
"Work in the bank?"
"What do you expect to do for a living?"
"Travel for my health."

Kismet.
"He loves me not," the daisy said.
When Elsie sought to pluck An answer from it, leaf by leaf, Or ill or happy luck.

"He loves me not," the daisy said.
When all its leaves were dried, And Elsie smiled at Fate because She knew the daisy lied.
